Milk,

High school has been loads of fun. Best of luck always in all you do. See you this summer.

Linda Smiley

Mike,

Best of luck next year.
It's sure been fun horsing around with you this year.

Bel Dunfort

Mike,

You, we sure have had a lot of fun this past year. I haven't we. Don't forget what I told you about you making a good
 Rev. - I mean it. Good luck to ya. Ray

Mike,

you are a real swell
guy. I'm glad I got to know better this year. You are lots of fun. Best of luck next year in all you do.

Rev.

Y. Pike,

These past two years in high school have just been the greatest. I hope next year will be as much fun. I hope I see a lot of you this summer. Best of everything to a wonderful fellow.

Ans

Mike,

Mike,
We're sure had fun this past year.
Chlor wouldn't have been the same without a few laughs from you. Best of luck next year. Best of Paul!

Mike,
I'll try to get Jim home earlier on Saturday night so he will be in church Sunday morning.
It's been quite a year hasn't it? Good luck!
Rosie

Mike - you've got to have yourself a lot of fun this summer and enjoy every minute of it.
Drive the "unholy"
Caddy. Until things get clean up in the Chevy. Have fun
Buddy!
"Dill"

Mike -

I guess they ay juniors have he most fun in igh school. I hope
t isn't true, now, ut I know will have good time next year anyway.

Good luck!

Andy P

Mike,

I'd write the same thing
Andy did but you wouldn't like that and it wouldn't be very nice so I won't. I had alot a fun with you in school and out of school. I hope I get some of your classes next year
Best of, luck next year

Fritz Bracklen

Mike,

We sure had lots of fun in math and in physics this year.
Best of luck next year.

"Mike," "to a lots of luck guy"
pretty swell guy.
Dad to have had you with me in Jazz" Solid, Algebra, and Choir. I hope you make a million
$ this summer.
See you,
Steve R.

P.S. -

Dear Mike,
Good luck next year. Have fun
this summer with the girls.

Hi Mike!
Well this summer
year, I imagine that the girls will well go over to
I hope you have some fun at summer
camp. See you
Mike,
Dawn

Don't worry. had some funning you (even if you are a Protestant!) Did always remember all our "arguments" in journalism & even the time we lost all paper
in that test!
Best of luck
John

I'll write more but I don't want to read out of it at times to a crowd
guy. Best of luck
I see you this summer
Jeri.

Hi Mike -
We sure had fun this year working on the Cub & such. You really looked great at the Prom the other night Mike. Thanks for the trip you gave me & even though it did cause an upset. I'll see you this summer if you come out to the pool.

Mike -

It's really been swell
discussing all our troubles and trying to work out your problems. I do hope everything works out eventually. We will have to double date this summer
if you ever get on the ball.
Best of luck always to a great guy.

We of Mason City High School

Hi, Mike!
You've been a great pal to me this year - I don't know what I would have done without you at some of these crucial moments. Remember that night at Hi-Dive?
Come see me at the Record Salon this summer. Love,

Dedicate . . .

To H. H. Boyce we dedicate the 1955 Masonian in appreciation of his teaching service during the past 34 years at Mason City High School.

During this time he has given unselfishly of his time and talents in helping build a better America through his teaching of advanced sciences. Rarely does he miss classes because of illness.

Former students now scattered throughout the entire United States remember him as an important influence which started them on their roads to success. In numerous cases, he is now teaching the children of his former students in the same conscientious manner.

H. H. BOYCE

Throughout the years, he has served his community and country. He fought in World War I and taught aeronautics during World War II. He is now adjutant of Clausen Worden Post 101 of the American Legion.

Mr. Boyce has constantly been one of the Masonian's most ardent supporters. We therefore feel that it is indeed appropriate that the staff dedicate this book to him.

To you Mr. Boyce -- your students of yesterday and we, your students of today, say Thank You!

Educate . . .

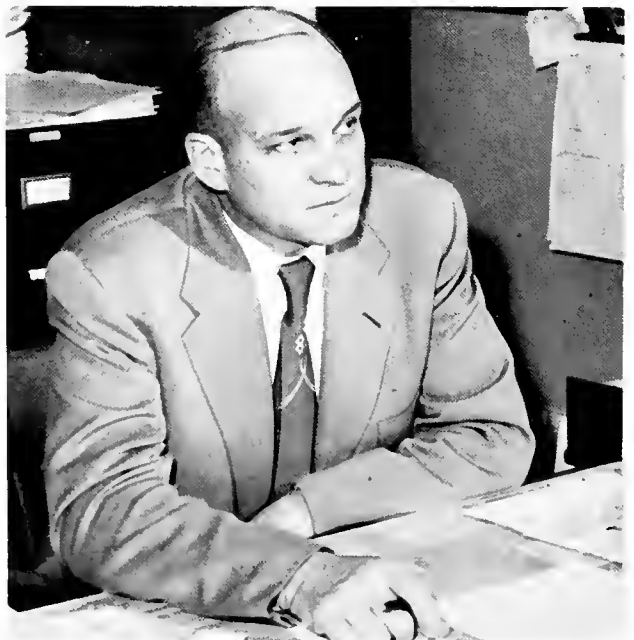

The leadership of M. C. H. S.'s understanding principal sets an excellent example for students and faculty alike. P. O. Brunsvold's quiet dignity gives him ability to handle any situation which arises.

The administrators and advisors of Mason City High School hold in their hands the lives of over 1000 young Americans. Not only do they hold lives in their hands but also in their hearts. Molding the minds of students is a tremendous job. The jobs of these five people do not end with an eight-hour day. They are at school early in the morning and are among the last to leave, often taking their work home with them. The presence of the advisors is always noticed and appreciated at school functions. To develop the whole individual physically, mentally, morally and socially is the objective of these people. Never are they too busy to spend time with a teenager in talking over a problem or in just talking. Indeed, these people are doing a wonderful work in building America.

Although burdened by many duties, our superintendent, Laurence Shepoiser is never too busy to visit with students or faculty.

The job of vice-principal is one of great variety. R. J. Penney's main duties include being Dean of Boys, student council advisor and counselor to all of the students.

A cheery smile that says, "And what can I do for you?" greets many students each day. Mary Lou Everts, office secretary is always willing to handle the numerous special requests brought to her.

Dean of Girls, Helen P. Fullerton supervises the guidance center which helps students solve their problems and obtain information concerning further education and a future vocation.

Looking over last year's Masonian are Frances Steffen, W. Lamont Constable and William Moore, standing. Miss Steffen and Mr. Moore teach algebra and geometry. Mr. Constable has advanced math. A semester of mathematics is required for graduation.

W. Lamont Constable

L. to R.: Howard Barker, Volney Hansen and Ray Eiben discuss coaching problems. Mr. Barker and Mr. Hansen teach biology. This is Mr. Eiben's first year in the Mason City school system. He teaches physical science.

Instructors of business education look over some material which has been run off on the duplicator. L. to r.: Julia Mace, Gladys Price, Kenneth Griffen and Margaret Brakel. This is Miss Mace's first year in the Mason City school system.

L. Bosveld

H. H. Boyce, left, and Louis Bosveld are the high school's two advanced science instructors. Perhaps they are talking over a physics problem. A year of either biology, physics, chemistry or physical science is a requisit for graduation.

L. to r.: Harold Palmer, M. E. Aspenson, William McKeown and David Cockrum. These are the manual arts instructors. Mr. Palmer teaches mechanical drawing; Mr. Aspenson, auto mechanics; Mr. McKeown, metals; and Mr. Cockrum, woodworking.

Alvie M. Sarchett, right, and Warren A. Ruby discuss employment possibilities in the field of art. Mr. Sarchett is the director of vocational and adult education. Mr. Ruby is the high school's art instructor.

Five teachers from the social science department get together for a chat over a cup of coffee. L. to r.: Ivan Fosse, Elmer Starr, Esther Pagenhart, Alice Riter and Wilma Tallman. Social science is required in the 11th and 12th grades.

Alice L. Riter

The home economics teachers and two driver education instructors try to solve the problem of making room in their classes for the increase in student enrollment. L. to r.: Florence O'Leary, Marian Dickenson, William Burnette and Julius Tesch.

Florence Flynn, right, and Frances Forster watch as George Losen points to where we live on the globe. Miss Flynn teaches Latin, Mr. Losen, Spanish and business training. Miss Forster has both Spanish and French classes.

Participate . . .

Student Council officers consult the calendar for the date of a coming event. L. to r.: Sue Penney, treasurer; Bob Hahn, vice-president; Joyce Egeland, secretary; and Jim Hilton, president.

The student council plays an important part in the school because it acts as the co-ordinating body between students and faculty. A representative and an alternate were elected in each homeroom in September. One of the main accomplishments of the council this year was the launching of a project to sponsor a foreign student during the coming school year. It was busy all year in planning school functions such as Homecoming, the Christmas party and Freshman Day. The student council also helped in the planning of assembly programs, the Halloween Dance sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Tug-O-War sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. Delegates were sent to the district and state conventions of the National Association of Student Councils. Dave Barnes, a junior, is a cabinet member of the Iowa Association.

Student Council sponsors many events

A group of student council members hear the secretary's minutes at one of their bi-weekly meetings.

Signs and slogans fill the halls during the first week of October as class officer elections overshadow all other activities. Everyone has a voice in this democratic system which is patterned after the national campaigns and planned by the student council. All classes are divided into two political parties--Federalists and Nationalists. Each party in each homeroom elects a chairman, a secretary, and one member to the platform committee. Party conventions for each class of each party are held at which candidates are selected. Then follow days of campaigning more elaborate than ever this year. Perhaps this was due to the fact that the junior and senior classes, both had third parties. A combined assembly is held the day before elections. Each candidate presents a speech before the entire student body.

Students elect class officers

The junior Nationalists select a slate of candidates at their convention in the music hall.

Hi-Dive Buzzes with Activity

Frank Daskalos finds it hard to borrow 15¢ for Hi-Dive. Most students agree that it is a small fee for an evening's entertainment.

Jackie Fick, left, and Carol Babcock buy some pop from Lili Angel. Workers at the concession stand are provided by the students.

No matter what type of dancing you prefer there's plenty of it at Hi-Dive! Every Friday and Saturday the youth center is buzzing with activity.

Hi-Y Enjoyed Educational and Entertaining Programs

Hi-Y officers l. to r. ; Don Kassar, vice president; Ron Pech, director; John Hugo, president; and Roger Diercks, secretary.

Hi-Y had many projects this year including entertainment, educational programs and service projects. David Constable, Ron Pech, Jon Gage, Joel Pierce and Dale Phillips represented Mason City in the Iowa Hi-Y Youth and Government Program in the fall. The club members sold Christmas trees and had basketball tournaments later in the year.

Barbara Paxton calls a Pep Club meeting to order as Janice Bisbee hurries to find a seat. Meetings were usually held Wednesday after school in the auditorium.

The red and black Pep Club uniforms were a welcome sight to the Mohawks during those crucial contests throughout the past year. Besides being present at every home football and basketball game, they also traveled to some of the games out of town. The girls sold refreshments at the home games, but their biggest project of the year was the Pep Club Carnival held in March. Flash cards were used for the first time this year, and that makes the Pep Club the first cheering section in the Big Six Conference to do so.

Pep Club Girls Plan for Mohawk Contests

Music Department Again Scores Hit

L. to r.: Don Lomen, assistant band instructor; Marjorie Stoddard, strings instructor; Mrs. H. C. Pendergraft and P. V. Nissen, vocal instructors. Seated is Paul Behm, band instructor.

Mason City High School for many years has had one of the finest music departments in the state and this year was no exception. A good music system stems from a good system in the grade schools and junior highs.

Back row 1. to r.: Paul Behm and Don Lomen, directors, F. Dirkson, M. Garufis, D. Pasco, D. Bosveld, J. Ream, B. Morrison, R. Hunt, J. Westwick, K. Kentner, S. McDonough and G. Christensen. Fifth row 1. to r.: T. Sampson, P. DiMarco, J. Peterson, J. Coffin, B. Brodt, J. Chlupach, D. Main, and J. Beamish. Fourth row 1. to r.: S. Cornish, K. Pearson, L. Hesse, M. Helm, J. Hibbard, J. Frahm, J. Paulson, C. Holvik and M. Frahm.

The Mason City High School Band is larger this year than in any year since the three-year high school was introduced in the school system. There are 127 instrumentalists under the direction of Paul Behm this year. The marching band of 103 players was invited to play for the dedication of the new East High School Stadium in Des Moines on October 9. A new sound recording system enables the band and orchestra to hear themselves play. It was installed on opposite sides of the stage in the Music Hall in January.

Band

Ouverson, S. Wood and C. Weiseth.

The concert band gave a concert at the Luther College Dorian Festival in Decorah on March 18. A second concert was presented at the Decorah High School during the afternoon. Mason City was host to a materials clinic in January at which the groups presented concerts for music directors from all over the state. The concert, contest band and the orchestra presented a public concert April 14 at the Roosevelt Fieldhouse.

Pep band members l. to r. standing: Don Lomen, director, J. Peterson, F. Dirksen, G. Ream and R. Hunt. Third row l. to r.: J. Beamish, D. Main, J. Chlupach, B. Brodt, J. Coffin, G. Christensen, R. Schultz, L. Spurgeon, E.
Wong and L. Angel.

Fourth period glee club officers are l. to r.:
Jackie McCaughey, president; Zoe Sherman, librarian; and Nancy Moen, secretary.

Under the direction of Paul Nissen, the Mason City High School Choir again gave many audiences enjoyment through varied concerts of choral music. They presented a Christmas program on T.V. and gave a concert of new materials for music directors in addition to their regular fall, Christmas, winter and spring concerts. Mason City was also host to the state large group contest in May.

Choir officers l. to r. are: Jack Holmlund, president; Robert Peck, secretary-treasurer;
and Ron Eggert, vice president.

Fall Follies Presents Entertaining Program

Variety was the theme of the Seventh Annual Mohawk Fall Follies. Each act brought a complete change of mood. The two-night show opened with the high school chorus and was packed with entertainment until the curtain fell on the beautiful "Ensemble in White." Who could forget the Dixie Landers, the McCarthaway Hearings, or the charming mistress of ceremonies, Marty Mount? Talent from every corner of M. C. H. S. was brought together for a truly wonderful show.

Sharon Clark, left, and Mary Helen Cookman "Didn't Know The Gun Was Loaded," and brought down the house.

The Daisy Mae Trio cried, "Ma, He's Making Eyes at Me!" L. to r.: Pat Treanor, Nancy Bull and Jeanette Fisher.

Future Teachers Organize

Teachers of Tomorrow is the newly formed Mason City High School chapter of the Future Teachers of America, a national organization. Miss Fullerton is the adviser and the group had a pot luck supper at her home in February. The group visited various schools on Future Teacher's day in the fall. Donna Ouverson was president of the county organization this year and Mary Schultz is the newly elected county hostess.

Future Nurses Club Helps Girls Prepare for Profession.

The purpose of Future Nurses' Club is to help girls further their knowledge about the field of nursing through speakers such as doctors and nurses from the community. The girls raised money through bake sales for a trip which they took in the spring. The officers of this group are Geraldine Wiltgen, president; Terry Finley, vice president; Deanna Schaper, secretary; Thelma Williams, treasurer, and Kathy Doyle, corresponding secretary.

Junior Red Cross Milk Sales Reach New High

Service to school and community is what the Junior Red Cross provided in their work this year. The milk sales in the lunch room reached a new high when the price was lowered to 2¢ a cup. They provided the service of selling packaged cookies. There were community projects such as the birthday parties at the Good Samaritan Home.

Future Business Leaders Have Busy Year

Future Business Leaders of America-- that's just what these girls are! Miss Brakel is the advisor of this busy group which published the state F. B. L. A. newspaper this year and sent a large group of girls to the state convention at Cedar Falls March 25-26.

F. B. L. A. officers l. to r. are: Sharon Imlay, recording secretary; Karen Twito, vice president; Sharon Zerble, corresponding secretary; Marilyn Hansen, president; Marlene Williamson, treasurer; and Sharon O'Green, historian.

Marlys Rafferty puts her dime in the ice cream machine as Helen Tennant starts eating an ice cream bar. The Retail Club sponsors the machine and will use the profits to take a trip in the spring.

Bob Toole demonstrates the proper display of a suit jacket to the retailing class. Students learn about styles, fabrics and tact in selling.

Retail Club Members Learn Selling Techniques

Students belonging to the Retail Club are enrolled in the retailing course which helps them prepare for a future vocation. Part of the day is spent in the classroom and part in a business establishment for which credit is given. Miss Stern is the retailing co-ordinator.

Retail officers l. to r.: Bob Toole, president; Barbara Bennett, secretary; Helen Tennant, treasurer; Helen Billings, librarian; Beverly Schultz, publicity; and Jack Engleman, vice president.

The dramatics department's first production of the year was, "The Little Minister," under the direction of Miss Thomas and student directors, Pat Vohs and Kathy Frenz. This was the story of a young Scottish minister who took over his first parish. He plans to admonish a young gypsy girl for interfering in the affairs of men, but falls in love with her instead.

The gypsy, Frieda Sternhill, turns on her charms for the little minister, Keith Rockwell, as the village crowd shows their force. The crowd is L. to r.: Lee Reynold, Gordon Fleckenstein, Carl Aspland, Dick Kunkert, Dick Edwards and Ron Hayward.

Dramatics Department Presents.....

The wayward chap, Bob Godfrey, takes a hand to the gypsy as the village crowd, Dick Edwards, Carl Aspland, Dick Kunkert, Gordon Fleckenstein, Ron Hayward, and Lord Rintoul, Bob Lutz are again in the scene.

The annual Christmas Program presented by the Fine Arts Department was highlighted by "The Christmas Pageant of The Holy Grail." The angels are Patsy Adams, left and Sandra Grosland. Phyllis Ellison portrayed Mary, Richard Edwards, Joseph and Bob Morrison, King Arthur.

"The Christmas Pageant of The Holy Grail," gave a message to the community during its two presentations. Mike Loftus was the narrator for the story which took place during the days of King Arthur and his knights. In the spring Miss Thomas, with her student directors Janice Skovaard, Pat Vohs and Bob Lutz, presented a three-act comedy, "Time Out for Ginger." After giving a speech in which he says teen-age girls should be more feminine, Ginger's father learns of her ambition to play football. All turns out well, however when Ginger decides being a girl isn't so bad after all.

Howard Carol, Bob Morrison, lifts his daughter Ginger, Barb Paxton, high in the air as Joan's boyfriend, Dale Dunham, Ginger's boy friend, Andy Peck, Joan, Dorothy McEnaney, and Jeanie, Zoe Sherman, give a cheer.

All of the costumes have to look just so for that all important performance. Mary Quinones, left and Virgene Price do some last minute pressing.

The behind-the-scenes crews deserve as much praise as the actors because of the tremendous amount of work they did this year. Sewing, painting and finding those last minute props took hours of labor on the part of many students. Miss Thomas's room often seemed like Grand Central Station as students rushed in and out with armloads of stage equipment and costumes. A great deal of responsibility also rested on the shoulders of the student directors. It was their job to see that everything went just so. It's the few students who stand in front of the footlights that get the applause, but after all was done most of the workers who looked on from the wings said they wouldn't have traded the experience and fun for anything.

The Christmas pageant took a lot of sewing as Jeanette Broers can verify. Jerry Ream, however, doesn't look too happy over his head piece.

Helmets and a sound system were only two of the pieces of equipment needed for "Time out for Ginger." L. to r.: Frances Frye, Nancy Taylor, Barb Paxton, Kay Reichardt and Bob Lutz.

Mr. Fonkert coaches six divisions of the speech department: declamation, original oratory, interpretive reading, extemporaneous speaking, debate, and radio speaking.

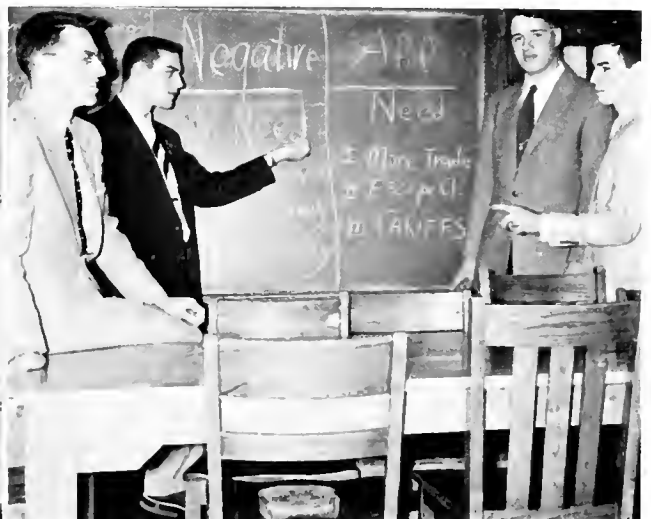

Students Participate In Varied Speech Activities

Speech activities help to develop an individual's writing and speaking qualities. Participants in oratorical, dramatic and humorous declamation memorize prepared selections. Radio speakers and original orators write their own selections, the difference being that original oratory requires memorization. Interpretive reading involves making the audience experience the reader's feelings on a prepared and a "cold," or unprepared selection. Extemporaneous speakers are given one hour to prepare a speech on one of various topics prepared before hand. The debate squad discusses the "pros" and "cons" of a resolution.

Stan Garfin and Frieda Sternhill, right, show Frances Zahariades the proper gestures to use in her oratorical declam selection. These three students entered the state contest series.

The debate squad brought home many honors this year. L. to r.: Ronald Christensen, Edgar Cagley, John Bahr, and Jim Polk who is standing in for David Shepoiser, a regular.

Jeanette Fisher, right, listens to the play back of her dramatic reading as Mary Ellen Schultz, left, and Sharon Sternhill adjust the tape recorder. These three girls entered the dramatic declamation section of the state contest series.

L. to r.: Donna Ouverson, Jo Ann Westwick, and Pat Richardson entered the humorous division of declamation. Jo is portraying Dorothy in the "Wizard of Oz," as Donna and Pat chuckle on the sidelines.

Sharon Sternhill, center, uses the microphone to practice her radio script. Dale Brodt and Jo Ann Westwick listen with a critical ear. All entered the radio speaking division.

Frieda Sternhill, left, watches as Ed Cagley gives his original oratory selection. Elaine Wong, right, Ed and Frieda all entered this division of the Iowa High School Speech Association contest series.

L. to r.: Mary EllenSchultz, Thelma Williams and Terry Finley listen to records of famous people interpreting poetry. The three girls got some helpful hints for their work in interpretive reading.

Extemporaneous speaking involves a lot of research as these three boys found out. L. to r.: John Bahr, Ronald Christensen and Jim Polk look through some current magazines to keep up on the news.

Hi-Lites Gives Students Radio Experience

The main purpose of the radio program heard every Saturday afternoon during the school year is to keep the school and community in contact with school news and activities. But it also gives experience to many students. Each program is planned, written, directed and produced by the students under Mr. Fonkert's supervision. Students try to get varied programs during the year from different departments of the school. The program directors have to contend with all the problems of last minute program revisions but the broadcast always went on. Programs this year included everything from news, music and panel discussions to student interviews.

Warren Ruby Jr. tries to get the feel of the controls before it is time for him to bring the show on with, "Mason City High School--on the air!"

The enrollment in journalism jumped from two to four full classes this year. A staff of juniors took over the publishing of the Cub Gazette in December and will continue until next December. The Cub staff works Tuesday and Wednesday nights after school. They are working hard to win another All American rating as did the 1954 staff.

Anne Burington and Gene Bier go over the proof of an edition of the Cub Gazette. Anne is editor and Gene is news editor.

Cub Gazette Brings News to Students and Community

Although the journalism students do the writing, material must be copy read and headlines written. L. to r.: Judy Bohn and Mike McAuley, headline writers, and Sue Penney and Mary Jane Adams, copy readers.

A New School Publication is Born

Mr. Puhl's journalism classes undertook a new project this year. When the senior Cub Gazette staff published the first issue on December 13, no one knew just what to expect -- not even the staff. From then on it was up to the juniors. The purpose of the Tom-Tom is to supplement the Cub. Sports and other activities can be featured which are hard to handle in the Cub. It also gives journalism students a chance to gain more experience.

The typists had double duty this year with the new publication. Two who did most of the typing for the Cub are Frances Frye, left, and Nancy Bull.

The stage crew under Mr. Ruby's supervision takes care of the school stage equipment and sees that all goes well during the many school and community performances in the auditorium. These boys worked at least one hour each day: Dick Grady, left, Don Wilson, center, and Keith Rockwell.

Library Workers Help Students, Faculty

L. to r.: Sandra Wood, associate editor, Mr. Stout, advisor, and John Challas, editor compare the 1954 Masonian with yearbooks from other towns.

Masonian's Purpose To Reflect Activities

The purpose of an annual is to reflect a year's activities and to preserve memories of these activities for years to come. That was the goal of the Masonian staff this year--to reflect the school year of 1954--1955 at M. C. H. S. The abilities of many students were combined in doing the numerous jobs which made this extra-curricular project possible. A supplement was added this year as an added feature and the staff feels that through this supplement they were able to include events that otherwise would have been impossible to include in the book proper.

Jack Geistlinger, business manager, and his assistant, Betty Morgan, strived to make the receipts equal the deficits. They handled about $4,700 during the year.

The telephone was kept busy this year as Advertising Manager Mary Kay Hrubetz, left, and her assistant, Eleanor Chazen, tried to reach their goal. Barbara Murphy, a junior, sold the greatest amount of advertising this year.

Chuck Frahm, right, activities editor, goes over a layout with Dave McGee and Nancy Moen. They planned this section of the book and drew layouts for all the activity pages.

Rodney Wade, assistant editor, and Pat Vohs, center, took care of records, did most of the typing, and compiled the directory. Marilyn Tieszen was in charge of publicity and responsible for those numerous morning bulletins.

The goal of 1,000 books was almost reached as can be seen in the poster. Marvyl Carroll sold the most books and here she is writing out another contract.

Sales Manager Marcia Hanson, right, checks some contracts with her assistant, Kaye Boyd. These girls had a lot of extra work because of the time payment plan, but through this system almost every student was able to purchase a book.

The album is an important part of an annual and the goal of this department was a picture of every student. Connie Weiseth, left, album editor, and her assistant, Stephanie Price, made every effort to reach it. Here they look over a page of pictures which they arranged and pasted together.

The Mohawks showed plenty of action in sports this year and Sports Editor Jim Polk, left, and his assistant, Chuck Gasswint, were right there to capture the events in pictures and writing. Jim is pointing out an error to Chuck as he types up the season's record.

The "M" Club is the honorary organization for letter winners in the Mohawks' seven sports, football, basketball, wrestling, baseball, track, tennis, and golf at the Mason City High School. Among the many traditions that the "M" Club cherishes is the annual initiation when, each fall, trembling candidates for memberships are put through their paces.

"M" Club Honors Mohawk Winners

Initiation was a hectic experience for new "M" Club members, as the veteran members made them run a gauntlet of pranks. Seen in various degrees of disfiguration as a result of the antics, are left to right: Allan DeWitt, Bob Danforth, Gary Coats, Bob Gates, Brian Brunsvold, Jay Cookman, and Leo Bookout.

Barbara Paxton reigned over the 1954 Homecoming festivities! Her attendants were Karen Twito and Jo Ann Johnston. Roger Gunther, No. 17, and Dave Barnes review the candidates who were 1. to r.: Nancy Taylor, Deanna Speakar, Miss Twito, Miss Johnston, Carlene Holvik, and Miss Paxton. Barbara and John Hugo were crowned king and queen at the dance following the game.

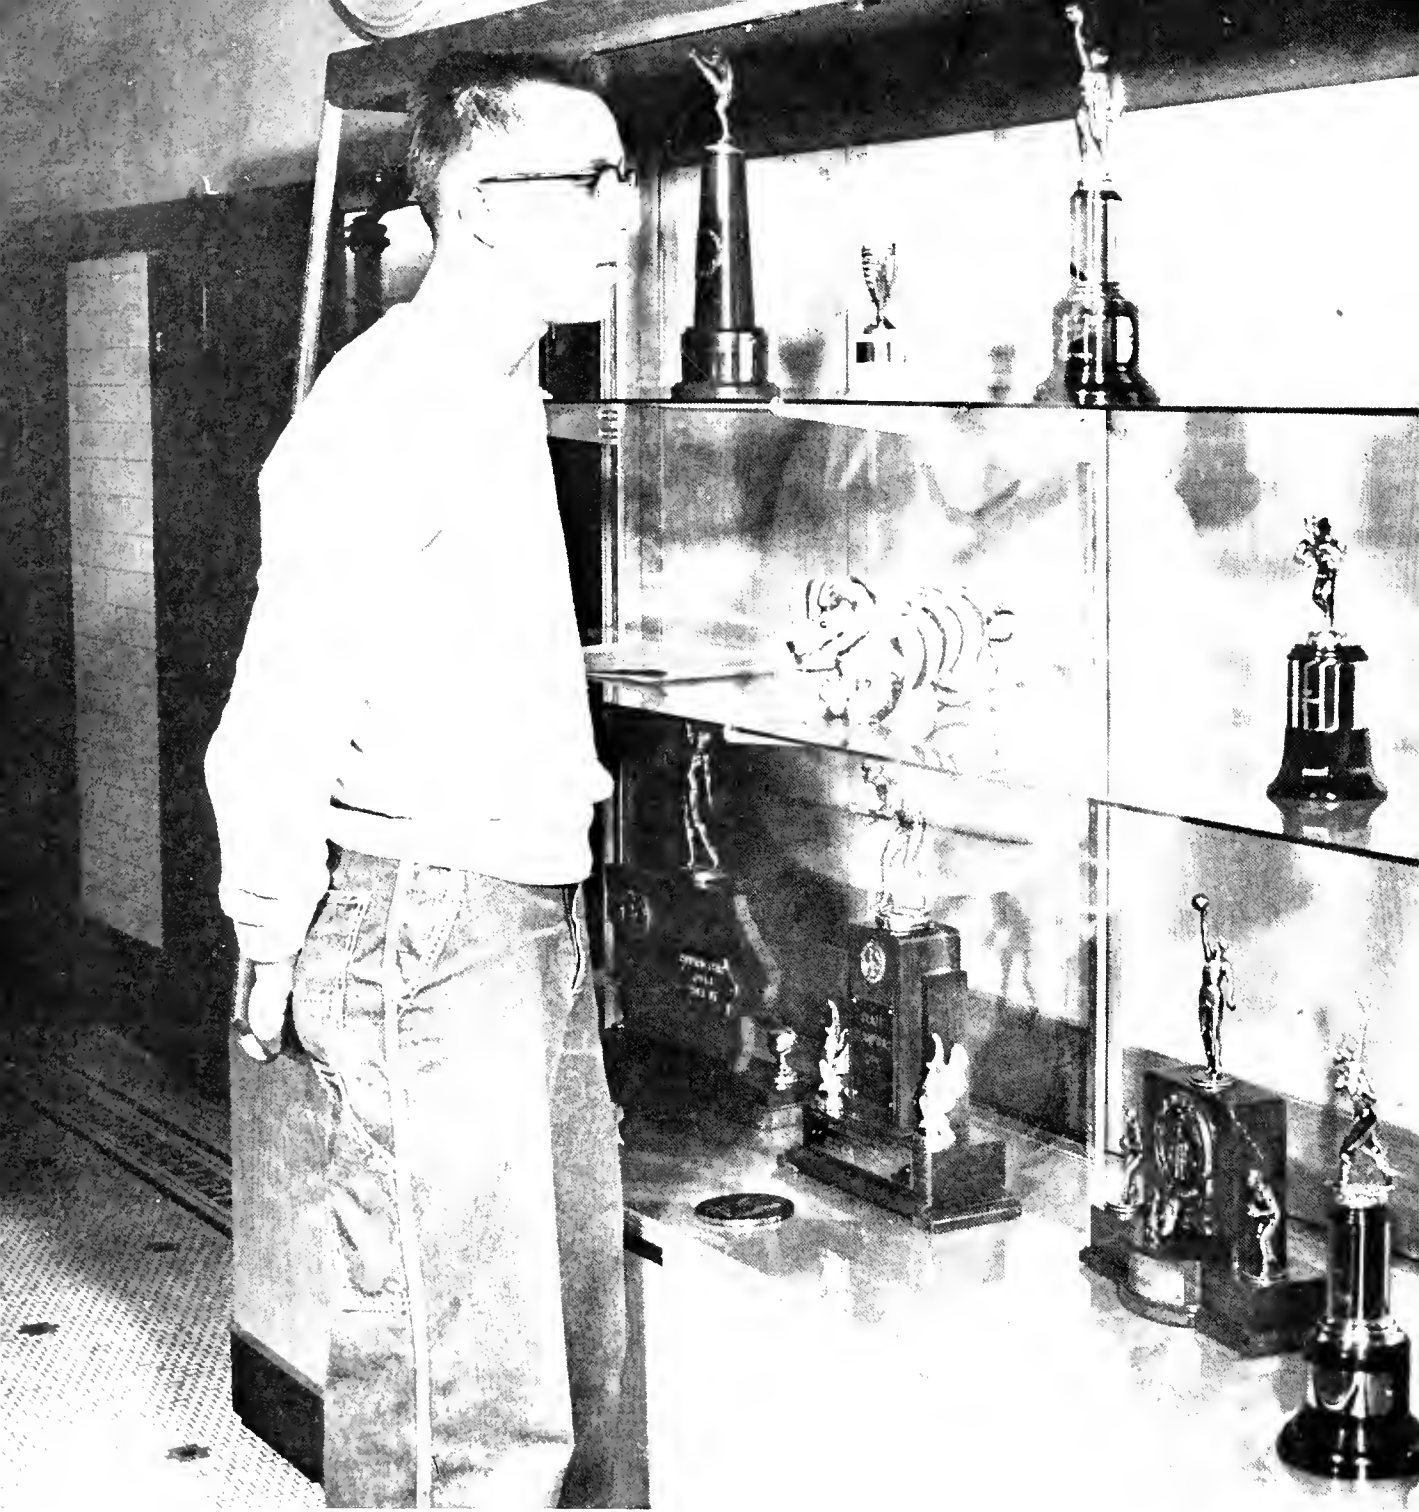

The pep assembly held in Central Park climaxed a snake dance from the high school. Cheers could be heard throughout the business district as the cheerleaders led some peppy yells. Don Obie was master of ceremonies and is shown here presenting Gary True a cash award for being the winner in the Homecoming poster contest.

Parade, Dance Help Celebrate Homecoming Festivities

The junior class float, "Let's Lick 'Um!" took first prize at the bonfire held the night before the game. For nights the three classes had been working in preparation of this big event. Adding to the beauty of the float are Mary Quinones, left, and Darlene Neibergall. Even though the Mohawks lost, Homecoming was an event not soon to be forgotten by the students of M. C. H. S.

Ames Brushes Past Mohawks in Football Debut

Mason City Launches Big Six Campaign With Win

A series of discouraging fumbles and Ames' devastating halfback Terry Rust helped defeat Mason City High School's football squad 25-6 in the Mohawks' opening game at Roosevelt Stadium September 11.

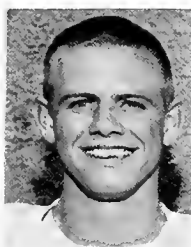

Tom Frisk broke loose for 46 yards and a Mohawk touchdown early in the game, but the visitors came back to dominate the remainder of the contest. Ames tied the score in the second quarter on a 10-yard run by Rust. Then, with Rust scoring two of the other three touchdowns also, the Little Cyclones went on to capture their eighth win over the Mohawks in the last nine years.

The Mason City Mohawks successfully opened their bid for the 1954 Big Six grid championship as they nipped North Des Moines 13-6. Bobby Hahn uncorked 25 and 19-yard passes for the Mohawks' two touchdowns.

Max Boller returned the kickoff 90 yards at the outset of the second half for North's only TD. North threatened again in the fourth quarter, picking up a first down inside the five late in the game. But after three downs had moved the pigskin to the one the staunch Mohawk line dug in and defeated the visitors' march inches from the goal, preserving the narrow 13-6 lead.

Mohawks Surprise West Waterloo 13-12

Field Goal With Four Seconds Left Beats Mohawks

The Mohawks upset West Waterloo 13-12 in their third outing, enabling Coach Bob Heston's crew to momentarily retain first place in the Big Six conference.

West grabbed a 6-0 lead soon after the battle started, but later the Mohawks drove 32 yards for a touchdown. Frisk crossed the goal line to score and also pushed over for the extra point that was to prove the difference. Only two minutes later the Mohawks recovered a fumble at the 22 and Hahn passed to Virgil Prohaski for a second six pointer.

West scored again in the fourth period, but the Mohawk line stopped the plunge for the vital extra point.

Two Mason City linesmen nail a Wahawk behind the line of scrimmage.

An aggressive Mason City outfit, battling against odds, strove valiantly to edge East Sioux City only to have the unbeaten Black Raiders break the ice in the final minute of the game and squeeze past the Mohawks 3-0.

After Sioux City had intercepted a pass with 30 seconds to go, Bobby Prescott booted a field goal from the four-yard line with four seconds left, providing the 3-0 margin.

The Mohawks had forced East back to the nine and three-yard lines at points during the second half. After they had taken over near the goal each time a fumble and another intercepted pass halted the Mohawks.

Barnes is stopped after a short gain, but the Mohawks won 13-12.

A horde of Mohawks seem to be on hand to halt the ballcarrier but twice they weren't in Mason City High School's 1954 Homecoming and East Waterloo won 13-7.

East Des Moines Drops Mason City 28-7

Tumble From Big Six Race in Homecoming Defeat

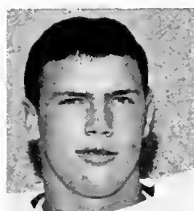

East Des Moines seriously damaged the Mohawks' hopes of winning the Big Six crown as the Scarlets took over first in the loop by means of a 28-7 victory.

East scored three touchdowns in the last half to break a 7-7 intermission deadlock and emerge from the crucial conference meeting still undefeated.

John Hugo ran 65 yards with a pass interception in the second quarter to chalk up the only Mason City marker as the Scarlets marred the Band's and Pep Club's annual out-of-town trips by inflicting the Mohawks' initial Big Six loss.

East Waterloo pounded at the Mohawk line with a violent ground attack that ruined the Mohawks' title aspirations 13-7 in Mason City's 1954 Homecoming Game. East fullback Bill Willard crashed through the left side of the line for touchdowns on 36 and 61 yard sprints. He also scored the extra point to account for all of the victors' 13 points.

Mason City rallied late in the fourth quarter with Hahn, McGee, and Frisk sharing the duties in a long scoring march that sliced the lead to one touchdown. However, the clock erased any further threat before the remaining 13-7 edge could be overcome.

Mohawk Running Attack Beats Charles City 12-6

Mason City Closes Season With 14-7 Triumph

A terrific Mohawk running attack clipped Charles City 12-6 here Oct. 23. Tom Frisk ran 58 yards for a TD in the first quarter and from then on the game belonged to Mason City.

The Comets rallied to tie the score in the second quarter, but two long runs by Bill Woodhouse and a penalty placed the ball at the visitors' two. Quarterback Bob McGee then followed the center of the line across with the winning touchdown.

The sturdy Mason City defensive unit easily maintained the 12-6 count during the entire second half to wrap up the verdict over Mason City's traditional rivals.

Bobby Hahn completed nine of seventeen passes for two touchdowns and a total of 208 yards as Mason City marched over Fort Dodge 14-7.

The Mohawks were knocking at the door of a touchdown four times before a 74-yard run produced a Dodger TD late in the second period. The Mohawks retaliated with three long aerials that evened the count with only 35 seconds remaining in the first half. Two more long passes resulted in another six points with barely three minutes to play in the fourth stanza, providing the deciding score as Mason City wound up its 1954 grid season with a 4-4 split of its schedule and a 3-2 Big Six record.

Mason City Gridders Tie For Third In Big Six Four Mohawks Named To Mythical Elevens

The Mohawks finished tied with East Waterloo for third place in the Big Six football standings.

East Des Moines, a perennial nemesis of the Mohawks, took first with a 4 - 0 slate and West Waterloo, Mason City's 13-12 victim, ranked second.

Jerry Bruce, Mason City lineman, was chosen to a first team guard position on the Iowa Daily Press Association's All-State listings at the end of the football season. Bruce, a guard on offense and linebacker on defense, was also picked to the All-Conference team by the Big Six coaches.

John Hugo was awarded the first team tackle slot on the All-Conference team. Halfback Bobby Hahn was placed on the second team and Tom Frisk received honorable mention among the IDPA's All-State choices.

Sophomores Win One, Tie One Out of Five Games

Elkton Yields as Only Victim in Second Game

The Mason City Sophomore football team, under the leadership of Coach Bill Stenecker, won one game and tied one in being outscored 112-65 by their opponents in five games.

The Sophs. fell before Northwood by one touchdown in their first game, but came back to bombard Elkton (Minn.) 19-13.

Nora Springs dumped the Mason City Sophs. 42-14. The Sophomores then battled to a 6-6 tie with the Sophomores of Charles City.

The Mohawk tenth-graders grabbed a 13-12 halftime lead before eventually bowing to Bode 31-13 and completing the season with a 1-3-1 record compiled against competition composed 80% of varsity teams.

Second row: Agapitos, Trudo, Utter, Westendorf, Holder, Honczarenko, Kiger, and Finley.

Third row: Sentman, Olson, Bunting, Pattschull, Boyle, Moon, Angel, and Clute.

Fourth row: Sondergaard, Julson, Martin, Ward, Dutcher, Gray, Pettey, Lennan, Bryant, and Sampson.

Mohawks Share Loop Title With West Waterloo

Coach Steneker's Squad Takes 15 Of 21

The long string of nine victories that had climaxed the Mohawks' finish came to an abrupt end at the Hippodrome where it had begun in January. The Cardinal and Black stumbled before Waverly 62-53 in the first round of the sub-state at Waterloo. For Mason City it was the end of the road. For four seniors--Prohaski, Clausen, Gates, and Hahn--it had been their last basketball game in Mohawk colors.

After a mediocre start, Coach Bill Steneker's quintet had hit their stride in the fourth quarter of a game against East Waterloo on this same floor late in January. Trailing by ten points at the start of the last period, the Mohawks had come from behind to win 80-78 on a jump shot by Zip Hansen with twelve seconds to go.

They had refused to stop, piling victory on top of victory until the string numbered eight, they had a 14-5 record, and had shared the Big Six Conference basketball championship with West Waterloo.

The chain gained another link as the Mohawks went on to defeat West 59-51 in the district and gain a berth in the sub-state.

The trail led again to the Hippodrome --and this time defeat. The season was over.

All in all, it had been a good one. They had won over 70% of their games, posted a final 15-6 slate, and had been ranked No. 3 in the Northeast section of the state in the final AP Poll.

Webster City had managed to stay abreast the Mohawks during the first half of the Mohawks' opening game of the 1954-55 season, but Virgil Prohaski took over the helm for Mason City in the second half as it loped off to a 71-55 win.

However, Ames dumped Mason City 55-52 in the Mohawks' initial home contest, despite a fifteen point deficit at one stage of the second quarter. Cedar Falls downed Mason City 67-52, but a strong finish enabled the Red and Black to clip Franklin of Cedar Rapids 62-57.

Playing Waverly here in the first of the three times the two teams met this winter, the Mohawks scored the first nine points of the second half to break a 26-26 tie and provide the margin for a 67-61 conquest. (Cont'd on next page)

East Des Moines Upsets Mason City 59-55

Mason City Beats Charles City To Start 1955

Basketball coaches Bill Stenecker and Ray Eiben of the Mason City Mohawks walk off the Roosevelt Fieldhouse floor following the Fort Dodge-Mason City game. From the expressions on their faces, one would hardly guess the Red and Black had just won 50-50. Perhaps, though, it was a preview of coming events, for the very next night the Mohawks were upset at Waverly 65-54.

The Mohawks opened their Big Six schedule at East Des Moines, incurring at the same time one of the only two loop losses suffered this season. Free throws supplied the margin of downfall. Although the Mohawks dropped in four more field goals than the Scarlets, they succumbed to East 55-59.

Returning to Des Moines seven days later, Mason City spilled North 57-45 after accumulating a 34-15 halftime edge. Then, upping their record to 5-3, the Mohawks drubbed Charles City 52-39 on January 1st.

Fort Dodge downed West Waterloo to give the Wahawks their first defeat. Then January 7, the Mohawks pulverized the Dodgers 57-50 to split the Big Six race wide open. The Red and Black expanded a 35-25 halftime margin to 57-41 prior to the first string's departure with two minutes to go. Mentink, driving and leaping for 23 points, paced the Mohawk attack along with Clausen who tallied an additional 17.

Waverly, destined to become the only team to defeat the Mohawks twice, downed them 65-54 the very next night, setting the stage for the Mohawks' crucial battle at West Waterloo for the conference lead, a battle that West won 74-66.

Jon Bramhall pops in a follow shot to give Mason City a 10-8 lead in the first quarter of the Mohawks' fatal battle with Waverly. Waverly won to oust Mason City from the sub-state contention. Bill Clausen (23) moves in for a possible rebound at the right.

Joe Mentink, the Mohawks' leading scorer during the 54-55 season, proves his mettle on defense as well as offense, as he blocks a shot by Webster City's Dick Boyd. Bill Clausen is seen in the center. Jon Bramhall is in the background.

Hanson Hits With 12 Seconds Left, Mohawks Win

Mason City Wallops West Waterloo 63-58

Mason City stayed a continuous threat throughout the game, but never could quite erase the lead West had established midway through the first period.

Mason City rebounded from the West defeat to start a row of triumphs that was to last the rest of the season. Behind 68-54 with seven minutes to go, Mason City scored ten points, all of them accounted for by Mentink, while East was getting a solitary field goal. A few minutes later, Tom Lewis dropped in a jump shot and Mentink pushed two field goals through the hoop to knot the count at 72-72. Lewis scored twice on a pair of fast breaks, but East evened things up again at 78-78. Then Hansen sank a short jump shot with 12 seconds remaining to decide the match and award the Mohawks an 80-78 win. Mentink got 27 points, 14 of them in the last period while the Mohawks were registering 26 points.

Webster City went down under a 70-50 barrage. The Lynx scored the first two points, but the Mohawks blazed away at the buckets with the next twenty and raced on to win. Charles City again bowed before the Mohawks, this time by a 66-36 score.

With Joe Mentink blasting away at the goals for 24 points and Bill Clausen netting 22, the Mohawks rolled over East Waterloo 72-60 in a return engagement. The Mohawks led 44-41 with two minutes remaining in the third quarter when Clausen dropped a charity toss through the cords to set off a seven-point explosion that made it 51-41 at the end of the period. Mason City stayed well in front the rest of the way.

West Waterloo journeyed to Mason City February 5 only to find disappointment and a greatly improved Mohawk five that vigorously slapped them down 63-58 to pave the way to the divided loop crown.

Mason City fell behind shortly before the close of the first half and the intermission saw them on the short end of a 35-30 score. Mason City, still trailing 49-46 at the end of the third quarter, tied the score at the beginning of the fourth on a basket and free throw by Clausen. The two teams remained neck and neck until a foul shot put West in front 58-57 with 2:35 left. Then Gordy Fleckenstein bagged two long one-handers to shoot the Mohawks into the lead. A pair of free throws gave Mason City a 63-58 edge at the gun. Mentink collected 19 points while Fleckenstein annexed 17 and Clausen 15. (Cont'd on next page)

Mentink Stars As Mohawks Nip Scarlets

Joe Sinks Jump Shot For 50-49 Revenge

Fort Dodge yielded as the Mohawks' sixth straight victim, falling 69-59. But East Des Moines came within two seconds of destroying all of Mason City's title ambitions.

East took a seven-point lead at the end of the second quarter and widened the gap to 31-19 early in the next period. Mason City cut the difference down to three before the quarter ended. Striving for another upset over the Mohawks, East, after dropping behind, grabbed a 47-45 lead late in the game. Mentink and Clausen teamed up for three points, but Maigaard sank a hook shot to make it 49-48. Joe Mentink then parted the nets with a jump shot from back of the free throw circle with nine seconds to go and six seconds later stole the ball from one of the visiting guards as the Mohawks squeaked past East 50-49.

The following night all five starters --Mentink, Clausen, Hansen, Bramhall, and Fleckenstein--hit in double figures as Mason City defeated North Des Moines 81-41 to get themselves half of the Big Six crown and at the same time equal the largest victory margin ever accomplished in regular season play.

Mason City Takes Rubber Game From West In District

Waverly Whips Mason City 62-53 In Sub-State

Paired with West Waterloo, the Big Six co-champs, in district play, the Mohawks settled all disputes with the Waverly as they ousted them from tournament play 59-51. Mason City made 12 out of 18 tries from the 15-foot line in the fourth quarter to aid their attack.

But the Mohawks found Waverly waiting at the Hippodrome. Fleckenstein missed his first shot, then sank two free throws and his next six tries from the field without a miss to lead the Red and Black to a 20-16 command at the end of the first quarter. Then Mason City's barrage wilted. The lead quickly faded away. The Mohawks regained it at 48-47 halfway through the last period, but once more it vanished and at the end of the game, the telltale scoreboard proclaimed a 62-53 win for Waverly.

The series of wins had stopped at nine. But, despite the fact Mason City's exit was not made in triumph, the Mohawks of 1955 had still written into the scorebooks one of the finest basketball years in Mason City annals, compiling a record on the court of which they can justifiably be proud.

Sophomores Win 9 of 14, Reserves Split Four Starts

Pleasing Prospects For Mohawks of 56, 57

Bolstering their record with a six-game winning streak in the first half of the season, the Mason City High School sophomore quintet captured nine of the fourteen cage contests on their 54 - 55 schedule. Five of the wins and three of the losses were recorded against Big Six sophomore and reserve teams.

Dalton, Chamberlin, Holder, and Bryant paced the Mohawk papooses in the scoring division while Wubben, Hahn, and Hansen also saw a good deal of action.

Meanwhile, the "B" team, composed wholly of juniors, split four games, all of them with varsity squads. Denny Remmert turned in a 36-point scoring feat as the reserves trounced Grafton 78-31.

The outstanding crop of sophomores, plus the returning lettermen on the varsity, point to another successful season again next year for the Mohawks.

And--oh, yes, before we forget, "Curley Bob" Heston dropped in 25 points as the faculty edged out the "M" Club 63-61 in January.

Frank Daskalos, wrestling at 127 lbs., turns the tables on Bill Owens of N. D. M., escaping his hold and going on to win 6-0.

Mason City's four contenders in the state tournament, Virgil DeVary (165), Don Hohenfield (112), Frank Daskalos (127), and Ron Booth (95), smile broadly after qualifying in the district tournament.

Mohawk Wrestlers Win Three, Tie Charles City Fourth in Big Six, District Tournament

Despite the handicap of inexperience in several of the weight classes, the Mason City High School wrestling squad still managed to finish fourth in both the Big Six conference standings and the district tournament held in February.

The grapplers took three dual meets and tied Charles City in another on a twelve meet schedule.

Don Hohenfield, a senior, and Virgil DeVary, a junior, each won district championships, Hohenfield at 112 and DeVary in the 165-lb. class. Ron Booth, wrestling at 95, and Frank Daskalos, a 127-pounder, also qualified for the state tournament finishing as runners-up in their divisions at the district. However, none of the quartet was able to get past the quarterfinals in the state meet at Cedar Falls.

The Mohawk matmen got off on the wrong foot at the outset of the season as they dropped their first four dual meets by wide margins, enroute losing to Big Six foe East Waterloo, 30-8.

Coach Barker's squad came roaring back to take their next three encounters.

John Martinez, Hohenfield, and Ron Shelp notched pins while the Mohawks tore Cresco apart 30-9 for their first win, just before Christmas.

Daskalos pinned Adrian Martin in 42 seconds as Mason City grabbed an early 20-2 edge over North Des Moines Jan. 7. The Polar Bears salvaged the next four-teen points but DeVary took his sixth straight win, pinning Warren Smith at 3:59 to insure Mason City's 25-21 decision.

The following night Mason City slapped down East Des Moines 27-13. Hohenfield and DeVary threw their opponents to extend their strings to seven victories apiece.

Yanking the magic carpet out from under Mason City, Fort Dodge outscored the Mohawks 28-13, forcing upon them their second Big Six loss in four conference outings. Hohenfield lost at Fort Dodge and DeVary dropped a decision as West Waterloo smothered Mason City 34-7. Daskalos, who previously had only a draw to mar his record, was pinned, removing Mason City's last three hold-outs from the ranks of the unbeaten.

Coming from behind in the last two matches, Clarion edged Mason City 21-18 in the Mohawks' seventh loss. Booth, Hohenfield, Daskalos, Walt King, Don Matson, and Roger Olson each won their matches to build up an 18-11 lead at the end of the first nine events, but two pins pulled a win out of the fire for Clarion.

Osage added a 30-13 defeat to the Mohawk card, but Mason City tied Charles City 19-19. Each team collected four wins and a fall while King drew with Dick Frazier in the 145-lb. class, 4-4.

Hohenfield, Daskalos, and De Vary accounted for 115 of the 196 points picked up by Mason City in dual meets. Each was beaten only twice during the regular season. DeVary threw six opponents, Hohenfield four, and Daskalos three.

Ron Masters, 133-lb. senior, racked up the quickest fall of the year, pinning Dick Berlin of Northwood in 17 seconds in his first round match at the district tournament.

COLLEGE Y

... entertains

The girls of College Y provided most of the social and recreational functions of the year. After game dances, coed swims and volley-ball games, a valentine party, and a spring formal highlighted this lighter side of college life.

Officers from left to right are: Elizabeth Cookman, president; Darlene Clark, vice president; Catherine Murray, secretary; and Marilyn Factor, treasurer.

...relaxes

The trip to Minneapolis for big ten and pro basketball games was the culmination of a successful year for the Collegiate Club men.

Formation of a Club basketball team provided extra incentive to the sport minded members.

These boys are taking advantage of YMCA facilities.

PHI THETA ALPHA

...prepares

Under the leadership of Irene Hahn, the members of the Future Teacher Organization accomplished much this year. Officially changing their charter name to Phi Theta Alpha, they assumed their position as the largest organization in the Junior College.

The first project of the group was a trip to Dubuque. Here the teacher trainees participated in the district

FTA convention. The organization later took to the road and a musical and dramatic group performed at schools in surrounding communities.

A spring trip to Waverly, similar to the Dubuque trip concluded the year's activities.

Association with state and national organizations gave this group under the direction of Edna Carstensen, an insight into their chosen profession.

Phi Theta Alpha is proud of Sharon Clark, vice president of the state FTA.

...dramatizes

The comedy John Loves Mary was presented in the fall of the year. Sparked by Irene Hahn as Mary, and Ronald Hansen as John, the entire cast under the direction of John Fonkert, did a fine job.

The dramatics department also presented a humorous skit for the Christmas program.

SPEECH

... speaks

Debate, interpretive reading, original oratory, after dinner speaking, and radio speaking provided a well-rounded speech program for the college.

Attending the Junior College Speech Festival at Fort Dodge was the climax for the year's activities.

. . . sings

The Junior College chorus, small ensembles, and soloists under the direction of Paul V. Nissen turned out a number of successful appearances at school programs and community functions. Betty Jane Westwick and Bill Dovali were president and secretary-treasurer of the chorus.

MUSIC

Instrumental music made its debut this year at the college as a band under the direction of Don Lomen, provided music for the Christmas program and pep assemblies.

TROY TRIBUNE

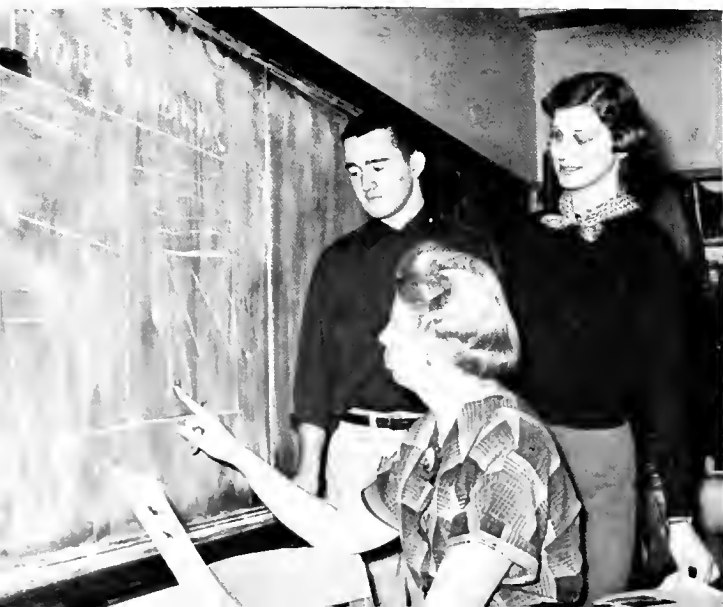

. . . reports

The Troy Tribune provided news, views, and laughs bi-monthly for the Junior College.

The introduction of freshman apprenticeship gave editor Joyce Goeders and her sophomore staff a break as Luke Miller and his team of freshmen assumed responsibility for publication during the second semester.

The Mason City Junior College football team, coached by Bill Moore, who is assisted by Elmer Starr, tied Northwestern for the Northwest Junior College Conference championship. Both teams had 3-1 records in the loop.

It was another successful year for the Trojans. Moore's outfit chalked up an overall 5-2 record.

Northwestern downed the Trojans by a 14-0 verdict. The Trojans were handicapped as nearly half of their players had been out for practice less than a week.

J. B. Schnarr, 210 pound tackle, was a big factor in the victory over Worthington as he helped the winners tally in the first and last quarters.

Jean Bisbee plunged a yard and Lee Swenson caught a Bob Londgren pass to give the Trojans two second half touchdowns and enable them to capture their first conference win, 13-6 over Fort Dodge.

Victories over Waldorf, Burlington, and Estherville made it five in a row and a tie for the conference crown.

Schnarr, Finer and Bob Niemeyer probably were the standouts in Mason City's line throughout the year with Schnarr especially outstanding. Five players shared most of the backfield action. They were Jean Bisbee, Burzette, Londgren, Loucks, and Sabin.

The team was a predominantly sophomore ball club. Sophomore starters included Don Webb, Darrell Fisher, Rabe, Swenson, Finer, Schnarr, Loucks, and Burzette. However, Moore had many freshmen on the squad and the '55 outlook is good.

HOMEcoming

Queen Shirley Morris and her attendants Elizabeth Cookman and Mary Lou Quintero reign over the Homecoming activities including a big bonfire and pep rally, football game, and homecoming dance. King of the '54 Homecoming is Bob Schnarr.

Mason City Junior College got off to a bad start and won only six of 20 games on the basketball court. The Trojans were forced to play their first six games away, losing five of them. The lone win in the first six contests was a 72-71 victory over Eagle Grove.

The Trojan team was dealt a bad blow at the end of the first semester when Del Schultz, 6 foot 9 sophomore from Thornton, completed his eligibility. Schultz had been a main cog in the Trojan team for two years, racking up a 22.7 point average during his sophomore year. Schultz had played one semester at another college making him ineligible after playing three at Mason City.

The starting lineup with Schultz in action had Jack Aeling and Chapman at the forwards, Schultz at center with Loucks and Dick Sawyer at guards. Tom Nixt saw a considerable amount of action as the number six man.

Forrest Gorkowski took over the center slot at the start of the semester and did a good job. Clarence Milnes and Paul Sabin also figured prominently in Hansen's plans for the second half of the year.

Other players who saw action at some time during the season included: Sam Schmalle, Bob DeWitt, Phil Vega, Jerry VanNote, Don Cheney, Marlyn Luecht, Bob Angell, Ron Klang, and Bob Abbott.

Mason City was defeated in the first round of the state tournament by an 83-31 verdict. Ellsworth connected on a pair of free throws in the final seconds to eliminate the Trojans.

While the 6-14 mark is anything but impressive, Coach Volney Hansen looks for better things next year. At the end of the season only three sophomores were on the squad. They were Gordy Loucks, Ron Chapman, and Bill Dovali.

It's Better With Butter!

Butter is your dependable source of natural vitamin A. It provides much needed energy. Its distinctive flavor deliciously enriches other foods. Golden, delicious butter makes all foods taste better.

Butter is made from nature's most perfect food. It takes ten quarts of rich whole milk to make one pound of health-giving butter. So much for so little makes butter the most economical food on today's table.

Homework Goes Faster

With Good Lighting!

Giving a child a comfortable, well lighted place for study is one of the most important ways a parent can help with homework. Here are a few simple suggestions on the basic principles of good lighting and good seeing—helpful to anyone who wishes to conserve his eyesight and energy:

HELPFUL HINTS FOR BETTER SEEING

HAVE RECOMMENDED AMOUNT OF LIGHT for the seeing task—use right-sized lamp bulbs*

AVOID GLARE FROM BARE BULBS or from reflecting surfaces—use lamps equipped with diffusing bowls and opaque shades.

AVOID EYE STRAIN by having a balanced distribution of light around the room—no bright spots and deep shadows.

DIRECT THE LIGHTING CORRECTLY so that the seeing task is free from shadows cast by your hand or body.

We wish to thank the students who have given of their time, the many firms who advertised in our yearbook, the many persons who have been inconvenienced and our printer (Stoyles Press) and our engraver (Kayenay Engraving Company) and the Globe Gazette photographers, E. L. Musser, J. C. Gibbs, whose help and direction have helped us in the preparation of this 1955 Masonian.

Hello Mike!
 I'm having a hard time trying to write in your annual old Constable has his beady eyes right on

SUPPLEMENT

John Penney, vice principal, turns on the inter-communication system as Andy Peck, business manager, prepares his daily report on the campaign proceedings. The jar in the foreground contains milk bottle caps--one for each junior and senior--used in the jack pot drawings.

Jerry Bruce turns in some sales to his homeroom secretary, Bob Plonsky. The homeroom secretaries and assistants kept track of sales plus each student's individual record. Teachers in six senior and 12 junior homerooms received stuffed poodle dogs for meeting their goals.

Elaine Wong, high salesman for one day of the campaign, reaches in the fish bowl for a handful of pennies, nickels and dimes. Joyce Miller is going to help her count her gains.

Magazine Sales Campaign

A profit of approximately $1,900 in this year's magazine sales campaign made possible a free senior banquet and junior-senior prom. Over $5,580, or more than $1,000 over our goal, in magazine subscriptions and renewals was sold in the 12-day campaign. Cash awards and a final grand drawing spurred the students on. Each day five silver dollars were given to a lucky student if he had turned in a sale that morning and the six dollar subscription rate to another if he had sold his parents a "Big - Three" subscription. The first student to call on one of ten "secret" homes throughout the city using the right sales technique won a stuffed St. Bernard. It was fun for all and those who participated gained much experience and could feel that they really had a part in earning their prom and banquet.

Andy Peck, campaign manager, and Mike Loftus, publicity manager, congratulate the three top salesmen of the junior class, Jerry Ream, Pauline Paulsen and Jon Gage. Ream won the trophy for being high salesman of the campaign with $146.30.

Bob Rush, representative from the Crowell - Collier Publishing Company, presents the prizes to the three top salesmen of the senior class, John Rodas, first, Lilly Angel, second, and Carol Johannsen and Gwen Mueller, not pictured, tied for third. Twenty-three other lucky students won prizes in the grand drawing.

Things appear quite small to the girls from the 86th floor of the Empire State Building.

Walking in the Easter Parade on Fifth Avenue was one of the many thrilling experiences.

A 10-day tour of New York City and Washington, D. C. with side trips through Chicago and Philadelphia will long be remembered by 36 Hi-Tri girls and their five chaperones. Besides the interesting places they visited and people they met, the girls gained much experience from earning $1,800 for transportation. Every detail was planned beforehand almost to the minute. They hope that Hi-Tri girls in the future will undertake such a project because all 36 agreed it was wonderful.

Hi - Tri

During the 8-hour tour of New York City they saw the Church of St. John the Divine which will be largest in the United States when completed.

A visit to the nation's Capitol was a highlight of their short time in Washington, D. C.

Thirty - six tired girls called a former embassy "home" during their two nights in Washington, D. C.

Banquet and Prom

Principal P. O. Brunsvold spoke on the topic "The Top Step" following Donna Ouverson's talk on "Threshold."

The annual Senior Banquet was held at the Trinity Lutheran Church May 14. All students again received a free meal due to the high magazine sales this year. "Stairway to the Stars" was the theme for which the seniors decorated. Later the seniors went to Roosevelt Fieldhouse for the junior-senior prom. Cinderella and her glass slipper provided the setting, and Bob Hoy and his band provided the music.

The junior class decorated. Marty Mount, Sue Penney and Fred Bracklein help put up the false ceiling of the blue crepe paper.

A castle painted on backdrops was on the stage. A vine covered wall surrounded the room.

Cinderella's glass slipper was a big project for Sue Hagen, Mr. Cockrum, Marilyn Vail, and their committee.

A huge glass slipper revolved in the center and Cinderella's coach stood in the background.

Students danced "under the stars" at Roosevelt Fieldhouse. Refreshments were free as was the dance.

Zoe Sherman and John Hugo leave the Cinderella Ball. Many students attended parties after the prom.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll is an honorary organization for students who have done outstanding work in the field of journalism. An impressive banquet was held April 25 at which 14 new members were initiated and pins awarded. All of these students worked on the Cub Gazette staff and met the qualifications for membership. A student must be in the upper third of his class, be approved by the national executive secretary and be recommended by the journalism instructor.

President Sharon Hiller shows Mary Ellen Beckman, vice president, and Ed Cagley, secretary-treasurer, some Cub Gazette clippings. These three, Kathy Doyle and Donna Ouverson were initiated in their junior year.

Speech

Quintilian Club, an organization for speech participants, had its fourth successful year in 1954-55. Fifteen new members joined in April. A point system, based on participation in speech activities, enables students to win letters and pins. At the annual banquet, May 12, new officers were elected and Ed Cagley was named speaker of the year.

President Ed Cagley, seated, tries out one of his latest jokes on Stan Garfin, treasurer, and Elaine Wong, secretary. Ron Masters, vice president, was not present for the picture. These officers presided over the two regular meetings and banquet held during the year. They also helped organize a Junior Toastmasters' Club which will start holding meetings regularly next fall.

Mohawk Nine Cops Ten of First Twelve Games; Wins Sectional

Mason City's baseball team, exhibiting powerful hitting, excellent pitching and fine fielding, took ten of their first twelve starts, including an 8-0 victory over Mason City St. Joseph's in the sectional finals.

Coach Elmer Starr's crew had little trouble in winning their first four games, defeating Rudd 14-7, Waverly 11-2, Rockwell 11-1, and Britt 13-0. Bill Clausen and Gordy Fleckenstein extended the Mohawks' unbeaten string to six, whipping East 6-4 and West 5-1 in a doubleheader.

Lyle Thompson hurled a no-hitter to enable Kanawha to edge the Mohawks 1-0, but Mason City bounced back to stop Austin, Minnesota's defending state champs, 6-4, aided by the relief pitching of Al DeWitt. Fleckenstein limited Fort Dodge to two hits as the Mohawks won 3-0 in the opening round of the Big Six tournament. However, West Waterloo nipped Mason City in the semi-finals 2-1.

The Mohawks drubbed Orchard 17-1 in their sectional opener as Tom Frisk blasted two home runs and Clausen one. Clausen slugged two more while Fleckenstein fanned 17 Johawks to give the Mohawks the decision over St. Joseph's and the sectional title.

Frisk batted .462, slugged 5 round-trippers, and knocked in 19 runs to pace Mason City at the plate in their first 12 games.

Bill Clausen approaches home plate after knocking his first of two home runs in the sectional finals as the Mohawks downed Mason City St. Joseph's 8-0.

Gordy Fleckenstein, ace Mohawk moundsman, warms up prior to the East Waterloo game in which he struck out 11 as Mason City won 5-1.

ELMER STARR
Coach

Coach Bill Moore's track team poses after a fine showing at the Teachers College Relays. Left to right, first row: Lyons, Woodhouse, Berhow, Phelps, Girton, King, and Torgeson. Second row: Johnston, Gates, Hansen, Eckhardt, Kassar, Brunsvold, and Bryant. Third row: Hutzell, manager, Pascoe, Kiger, Hugo, Burgess, Enbusk, Schultz, Sherriffe, and Birkholz, manager.

Tom Johnston heaves the shot put 45 feet, 11 inches to win in the Mohawks' opening meet.

Relay Strength Helps Get Track Team Off To Good Start

The relay teams plus Bill Woodhouse led the Mohawk track squad to two victories in three meets and exceptionally fine showings at the Teachers and Drake relays, in which standings were not determined.

Setting six records, Mason City squeezed past Charles City in their opening meet with the Comets and Hampton. The 880, two mile, and medley relay teams all covered the distance in record time while Girton in the half mile, Woodhouse in the century, and Bryant in the high jump also established new marks.

The Mohawks dominated the Teachers Relays with Woodhouse and the same three relay teams winning again, the 880 quartet setting a new record. The following weekend Woodhouse placed second in the 100-yd. dash and the two mile and 880 teams were fourth and fifth, respectively, at the Drake Relays. Meanwhile, the remainder of the team tied for fifth at the Comet Relays.

Coach Bill Moore's thinclads captured the Mohawk Relays from a field of nine schools. Pushed by a strong wind, Woodhouse unofficially equalled the national scholastic record for the 100-yd. dash. His time of :09.4 was only one-tenth of a second off the world's record! Standout members of the relay teams included Torgeson, Berhow, King, Sherriffe, Schultz, Woodhouse, Girton, Phelps, Lyons, and Burgess.

Coach

Bill Woodhouse hands the baton to Bob Girton as the medley mile relay team enters the last lap of a trial run during practice.

Bill Woodhouse lunges across the tape to win the 100-yard dash in 9.8 seconds, breaking his own record, in the Mason City - Charles City - Hampton triangular meet.

Gary Coats and Bob Erbe defend their side of the net while on the right Andy Peck and Gene Bier, the other doubles combination, expectantly await the ball in a practice match.

Net Squad Splits First Two Meets; Ties For Fourth in Big Six Tourney

The Mohawk tennis squad, coached by Howard Barker, split their first two meets and tied for fourth in the Big Six net tournament at Fort Dodge.

In their initial start the Mohawks dropped a 5-2 decision to Fort Dodge. Gene Bier stopped Gary Eaton 6-4, 6-0 in singles competition. Bier and Andy Peck took two out of three sets for a doubles victory and the only other win.

Mason City trounced Albert Lea (Minn.) 6-1 in their first home contest. Bier, Peck, Gary Coats, and Bob Erbe all racked up singles victories while the doubles combinations of Bier and Peck, and Coats and Dave Constable gained easy wins also.

Coats and Peck ousted North Des Moines' doubles team for the netmen's only win in the Big Six tourney.

Mohawk Linksmen Lose Opener; Capture Next Four Golf Outings

Despite falling before Austin (Minn.) in their first meet, the golfers came back to vanquish their next four foes by wide margins. However, Coach Volney Hansen's linkmen were able to place only fourth in the Big Six tourney.

Mason City, paced by Dave Chambers' 77, beat Charles City 11-4 for its first win. Chambers duplicated his score as the Mohawks took their home opener from Clear Lake 14-1. They stretched the streak to four with victories over Iowa Falls 13-2 and Charles City again, 14-1. Dave Barnes was medalist against Iowa Falls with Chambers taking honors in the latter triumph.

Chambers had a 76, the fifth lowest score of the tourney, and Barnes fired an 80, but the Mohawks finished fourth in the Big Six meet.

Hi!
 The little juniors have had alot of fun this year haven't we? Next year we will be mighty strong, but I kinda think we'll have even more good times than we've had this year.

See you
 Je Hagen

Mike,
 Its sure been nice messin'
 around with you this year!
 We sure should have fun
 at boys state this year.
 I won't be seeing much of you this summer but have fun anyway. Lots-o'-Love

Mike T. Holey

Mike,
It sure has been great knowing you. You sure have a dynamic personality and sense of humor. Keep it up and I'm sure you will go a long way in life.

Best of luck always.

Mike
you sure are a sweet guy and a lot of fun.
I don't think I'll ever forget the fun we had
in choir this year.
Good luck in everything you do.

Don't forget to see if the junior book
is in the school.
Let me know when you see
it. You can take it out.
